Wildfire, the U.S. Navy's Pacific Air Forces' top commander, will run the service's Navy, multiple sources told Defense News. In July, Air ForceGen. Mike Griffin announced that he would retire in six months, after a 30-year career. Griffin's announced departure was first reported by The Wall Street Journal in November 2015, when it was first reported that the service's top commander wanted to move the the Pacific to run operations, not just lead the Air Force's Pacific Air Forces. Griffin then expanded on his departure in a letter to service members at the time. "When I accepted the job, 3da54e8ca3
